Social media and website

WSWV Hellingproof provides members, donators and other interested individuals with information about activities within the association via social media and the website. Within these media, the image and text materials posted are being carefully selected. In the case that WSWV Hellingproof posts unwanted image and/or text material online even despite this selection, it's of course possible to object to that. This material will then be deleted or changed (see for this the paragraph about 'The rights concerning your data')

Safety

Personal data that are used by WSWV Hellingproof are being safely stored, and are only accessible to the board. Committees can access parts of the data if this is considered relevant by the board.

Use of personal data by third parties

WSWV Hellingproof does not allow use of personal data by third parties for commercial, charitable, or idealistic purposes.

Use of cookies

WSWV Hellingproof makes no use of cookies when providing its services via the website.

The rights concerning your data

As a member or donator you have the right of insight, rectification or removal of the personal data that we have received from/about you. This is possible by sending an email to wielrenners.wageningen@gmail.com.
